Things to pack: In general, these are the things to remember.

1. Heavy coat or jacket. Parkas, puff, wool...take your pick. Big enough to fit over layering.
2. Sweaters/Sweatshirts
3. Layers under the clothes. Everything from tanks to t-shirts to turtlenecks. Although it will be cold outside, it can be very warm inside buildings. You will want to be able to take some layers off to be comfortable.
4. Under garments. Special note: bring extra socks.
5. Several pair of comfortable shoes. Especially shoes that will keep your feet dry and that will stand up to lots of time walking on concrete. Ladies leave the heels at home. Your feet will thank you. Uneven sidewalks and grates are an ankle twisting hazard.
6. Jeans, leggings, pants, skirts or dresses.
7. Two nicer outfits to see shows in. Don't have to be super dressy. Nice jeans/pants and a sweater are fine.
8. PJ's
9. Winter hats, scarves, gloves, mittens and possibly earmuffs Dick's sells hand warmers.
10. Purse/Bag Crossbody that you can put under your jacket is safest. Do not put things in your back pockets!
11. Umbrella, poncho or rain jacket.
12. Headphones you can plug in or an Airfly for creating blue tooth link for plane ride. JetBlue will gladly sell you a pair, but you probably already have a pair at home.
13. Power cords including a block for charging phones.
14. Toiletries Bath stuff, toothbrush, tooth paste etc. Pack in a zip lock or other plastic type bag. You don't want to get to NY and find your clothes bathed in shampoo.
15. Chapstick/lip balm, Hand sanitizer, tissues. Consider a mask for the plane ride.
16. Medicines if you need them. Please take care of your child's needs through our nurse's office. It is important in case of an emergency; we are aware of meds your child may be on.
17. Travel pillow/throw blanket. Try to sleep on bus and plane on the way there.
18. Hotel has a hair dryer. If you need hair straighteners or curlers work out with roommates who brings what.

Leave room in your bags for souvenirs
